Thursday 9th October

Parents/Carers,

Re: Hello Yellow Day – Friday 10th October

We are looking forward to celebrating Hello Yellow Day this Friday in support of World Mental Health Day. This is a fantastic opportunity for us to come together and raise awareness of the importance of looking after our mental wellbeing.

Throughout the day, children will be taking part in a range of fun, yellow-themed activities in class, and exploring different ways we can all take care of our mental health.

Please note that it is still a PE day, so all children are expected to come to school wearing their school PE kit.

Thank you for your continued support in helping us promote positive mental health and wellbeing across our school community. We're looking forward to a bright and cheerful day!

Kind regards

Jan Bellison - Head of School
